WISCONSIN LINE, T. J. LASS LOG RACE.

BY FRANCIS TREVELYAN.

WISCONSIN LINE, T. J. LASS LOG RACE. The winners were hard to pick, and the only successful favorite was Tantis in the steeplechase, and he was not very strongly backed.

The Morris Park Handicap, at two and a quarter miles, over the Withers course, resulted in a big turn-out. The race seemed on paper to be absolutely between two, Ben Holladay, last year's winner, and Ethelbert. But Ben Holladay was not himself, his bad leg plainly bothering him, and Ethelbert was not wound up for such a bruising race. This left the spoils to fall to the rank outsider of the bunch, Muskadine. This 20 to 1 shot benefited greatly by the strength of his jockey, Frank O'Leary.

King's Courier a Winner.

The White Plains Handicap, the other big event of the day, was captured by King's Courier. This colt had been offered for sale at public auction earlier in the day. He was knocked down to W. M. Rogers, but Colonel "Jim" Pepper made an advance offer to retain him in the Pepper stable and the colt ran in his former colors. Yesterday's performance was so good that it seemed to justify the rather extravagant opinion of him that his owners had formed.

The big handicap had half a dozen starters. Ethelbert, with Odum up, was made a strong and consistent favorite, although it was known that the colt was suffering from the sickness in the summer. He had not been able to really put on his long race. The colt had not in actual fact ever gone even two miles, except on Thursday afternoon after the races.

Nevertheless 6 to 5 was freely taken about his chances. Ben Holladay was at ways in the neighborhood of 13 to 5, the public refusing to believe that he could be beaten, despite his 14 pounds. Camero had considerable following, and his price fell from eight to five, but the others were friendly.

Race Not Satisfactory.

It was not a satisfactory race. The pace was poor. Odum had orders to wait with Ethelbert, and did his best to obey them, but the colt had no choice but to be in the front.

The first three furlongs were run in a better than 4 to 2-3 according to most watchers, though the Withers course is poorly adapted to getting the fractional times. Ethelbert lay in front with Warren, but while Warren was outfooted from the start, despite the absence of pace, Ben Holladay was, for him, well up.

The relative positions changed but little, and Ethelbert, turning for home, looked a winner, though Ben Holladay was after him hot foot. The three-year-old failed to stay from lack of condition, and an unexpected factor materialized when O'Leary brought Muskadine up on the rail.

Spencer Was Tardy.

If Spencer had not been quite so sure that Ethelbert was the only horse that Ben Holladay had to beat he might have done better. As it was, though he had made his move plenty early enough, he delayed going at Ben Holladay until it was too late. O'Leary got Muskadine home three parts of a length in front, while Ben Holladay only beat Ethelbert a head. Camero was never dangerous and was a bad fourth, while the others were beaten off.

The time for the three-year-old was 2:10 2-5, and 9-5 seconds faster than Ben Holladay's record over the course; but the pace was poor throughout. The five furlongs were run in 1:24, one and one-quarter miles in 2:10 2-5; one and one-half miles in 3:30 2-5 and two miles in 4:30 2-5.

Brigadier Well Backed.

The White Plains Handicap had Brigadier for a favorite, he being backed from three to two. Killashandra, who opened at 5 to 2, went back to five. King's Courier had backing enough to send his price down one point from the first quotation of 6 to 1.

The Pepper colt made all his own pace, despite his impost of 120 pounds, and though Brigadier came after him fast at the finish, won cleverly by half a length. There was a strong wind behind him, but the time—1:30 1-2—was very fast, and as he was giving the second horse ten pounds it was a meritorious performance.

Two Jockeys Fall.

The steeplechase was a capital race, and though two of the jockeys got heavy falls no damage was done. Cock Robin made the running, but failed to stay home. Owens is apparently not strong enough to do the horse as full justice as Mara.

Tantis had been back in the bunch most of the way, but went to the front the last time down off the hill, and leading over the last jump, just got home by a head from Philae. The latter was not ridden as well as usual by Donahue, who seemed unable to make up his mind when to make his effort.

All Gold won by a head from the even-money favorite, Mayville, in the second race. They were the only two in the race, and the running in company. Both ran game, but the colt lasted longer.

Buffoon, at 8 to 1, won a selling race at six and a half furlongs from end to end from a bad lot, non-winners in 1890. The favorite, The Barrister, was never in the hunt. Intrusive was again backed for a good thing in the mile handicap, and again landed the money. He made the pace, and though Bob, who was a slight favorite, made gallant efforts to get up, he could not overcome the lead, and was beaten handsomely by a length and a half. Raffaello ran over two miles, but could not have been his true form.

The Pair Put in Several Hours Daily Along the Beach at New Dorp and Allenhurst—Both Are in Fine Condition.

SHARKEY AND HIS DOG, "BOB FITZSIMMONS."

A study of the husky Californian. The dog is his constant companion on his daily runs along the beach. His name indicates that the Californian thinks well of the husky Cornishman.

THOMAS SHARKEY continues to do light training for his championship battle with James J. Jeffries.

Down at New Dorp the sailor is following closely a schedule laid out by his trainers which he believes will put him in condition to make the battle of his career.

Sharkey's favorite exercise is road work, and every day the big fellow covers several miles accompanied by his dog, "Bob Fitzsimmons." The dog was given to Sharkey by one of his admirers, and the pair are well-known figures along the Shore road, where Sharkey takes his daily jaunts.

Next week Sharkey will confine the most of his time to outdoor work. He is already down to weight, and he now intends to look after his wind apparatus.

While Sharkey is travelling along at a moderate gait Champion Jeffries is getting in all the work possible in an effort to make up time lost by his injured arm.

Jeffries's arm is gradually growing strong, and with his present treatment it is safe betting that he will have no further trouble with that member.

The champion, like Sharkey, is fond of road work, and his runs over the Jersey sands vary from ten to fifteen miles every day. Road work, Jeffries believes, is a good weight reducer, and as he intends to fight Sharkey at a lighter weight than he has fought Fitzsimmons, he will continue long runs until he has reached the required weight.

Beginning to-morrow, Jeffries will box with Tommy Ryan. Since Ryan's arrival at Allenhurst Jeffries has done little sparring. This is explained by Ryan's delay in joining the Jeffries camp and later on by the mishap to Jeffries's arm.

Ryan, who trained Jeffries for his fight with Fitzsimmons, says that the Californian is in superb condition physically and will surely defeat the sailor.

Dr. Fraenkel, who has been attending Jeffries, came up from Asbury Park last night to secure a new apparatus to treat the champion's arm. The doctor is pleased with the improvement shown by the patient, and said he was confident the Californian would come around all right.

Dr. Fraenkel is by no means through with Jeffries, and he will return to Allenhurst to-day with a new instrument, which he believes will have the desired effect.

L. A. W. PIONEERS TURN FOR OFFICE.

Elliott and Potter Discuss the Needs of the League.

Sterling Elliott, of Boston, for many years high in the councils of the L. A. W., was in the city yesterday, and while here had a conference with Isaac R. Potter, who has been identified with the national cycling organization for many years.

There seems to be a dearth of new presidential timber in the League, but at the same time there is a widespread desire to call forth some of the pioneer workers from their retirement and again press them into service.

A novel proposition which Mr. Elliott presented to Mr. Potter was that the two of them should run for office and a flip of the coin should decide which should try for the presidency, the other to accept one of the vice-presidencies.

Neither yearns for office on account of stress of private business affairs, but both are of the opinion that the L. A. W. needs some uncommonly hard work to revive interest in its line of endeavor. It is not known whether President T. J. Keenan, Jr., intends to stand for re-election, but there is no announcement for his retention for the office.

Probably there is no more popular man in the League than Mr. Elliott, and matters might be decided in his favor if he were to consent to serve another term in an office which brings much work and little remuneration and glory.

Good Sport at Guttenberg.
Mock, the road record wonder, will be a prominent starter in the fifty-mile event included in this afternoon's card at the Guttenberg track, but he will have a strong list of competitors to defeat.

Adolph Michel, the winner of the last half-century race, will endeavor to retain his honors; Bleecker, of Labor Day fame on the Coney Island cycle path, will participate, as will James Higgins and Hanser, three hardy Jersey pluggers; Sullivan, of the Greenwich Wheelmen; Munz, of the Kings County, and a score of others are down to start.

The race, being on a dirt track, should fall to one of the riders who appear to best advantage on the road.

Harry Elkes, the middle distance champion, will be the star to-day at Vailsburg, where he will start in the 100-mile event, and will be as serious as was at first feared.

A race between motors, a paced contest between Jacobson and Ross, a pursuit battle with McEachron and Maya as the principals, and a best two in three affair involving Slim of Washington and the champion, of Toronto, should supply some excellent sport.

FIGHT WITH "KID" MCCOY.
The proposed match between Charles "Kid" McCoy and Peter Maher was clinched last night when the latter affixed his signature to the articles offered by Manager Brady.

The fight will be for twenty rounds, and will take place at the Coney Island Sporting Club, probably November 30.

Brady offers $20,000 for the bout.

Boy's Long Ride on a Cowcatcher.
Albany, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Edward Bailey, a boy of St. Paul, Minn., rode from Rochester to this city last night on the cowcatcher of the engine that drew train No. 28 from the West. He was dirty and grimy when he stepped off his perch into the clutches of a policeman. During the trip he lost his hat.
